

2015 Denali Week

7-DAY ITINERARY

August 23 - 29

Day 1 Afternoon/Evening: Arrivals, check-in, orientation, dinner, and introductions.

Day 2

Morning: Get to know the landscape and history of Denali National Park on a guided walk along the Savage River, located 17 miles inside the park.

Afternoon: Meet the four-legged heroes of Denali at a mushing demonstration, take a hike, or learn about current park research at the Murie Science and Learning Center. Explore Denali's renowned main Visitor Center complex.

Evening: See the Interior of Alaska throughout the seasons during a slide show of stunning photography captured and narrated by a local professional landscape photographer. *

Day 3

Morning: Learn about the sometimes surprising, always extreme, conditions that shape life in Denali and define a subarctic ecosystem during our "Exploring the Subarctic" class.

Afternoon: Explore the world's largest biome, the northern boreal forest, on a guided walk on Rock Creek Trail.

Evening: "Life in Denali" with a local resident.*

Day 4

Morning/Afternoon: Travel deep inside Denali National Park on a day-long journey to the Eielson Visitor Center at Mile 66 on the park road. Along the way, enjoy breathtaking views of the Alaska Range and its many peaks, and - weather permitting - behold majestic Mount McKinley. Have your cameras ready to take pictures of wildlife, which may include caribou, grizzly bears, Dall sheep, moose, wolves and more.

Evening: Free time to rest, relax, and explore

Day 5

Morning: Discover the extraordinary animals that call Denali home and learn about their marvelous adaptations to life at high latitude in our "Wildlife of Denali" class.

Afternoon: Explore the rich and varied habitats of Horseshoe Lake with an experienced field educator.

Evening: "Climbing Denali" with a local mountaineer.*

Day 6

Morning: Experience a piece of the Park closest to your home away from home. Join one of our field educators for a guided walk along the shores of the Nenana River, opposite our campus. The walk is 2 miles with 25 ft. of elevation change.

Afternoon: Free time to rest and relax, explore the park independently, or pursue optional activities like rafting, flightseeing or visiting the kennels of an Iditarod champion.

Evening: Closing ceremony and group slideshow (there will be live music and dancing!)

Day 7

Morning: Check-out and departures

Program Price: $1500/per person. This extraordinary value includes six-nights double occupancy lodging on our riverside campus, homemade meals starting with dinner on Day 1 through breakfast on Day 7 (17 meals), expert instruction, program coordinators, and the full cost of scheduled activities.

Evening presentation topics may vary depending on speaker availability*

Mission: To promote appreciation of Denali through informative and inspiring programs
